APPENDIX C.

Representations not taken up.

No. 12.—Re-consideration of the principles of levy of dry assessment on lands in Kolar District.

Messrs. S. Hampiah and Venkataramana Boyee, Special Interests, J. Naranappa, Sidlaghatta Municipality and S. Chikkamuniappa, Sidlaghatta Taluk.

In all the taluks of Kolar District, assessments on dry lands have been enhanced considerably during re-survey operations. Raiyats have complained against such levy but nothing has been done. It is, therefore, prayed that the matter may kindly be reconsidered and suitable reductions ordered.

No. 27.—Compounding of Income-tax for a period of 5 years.

Mr. B. Nanjundiah, Hosadurga Taluk.

For the purpose of assessment of Income-tax the assessees are required to furnish accounts to the Income-tax Collector every year. This is found to be very inconvenient. It is, therefore, requested that the tax may kindly be ordered to be compounded every 5 years, when parties agree.

No. 28.—Affixing of stamps to Jamabandi petitions.

Mr. Pattabi Rama Setti, Chiknaikanahalli Municipality.

The affixing of 12 annas stamps on petitions presented at the time of Jamabandi is insisted upon. It is prayed that such petitions may be exempted from court-fee stamps.

No. 29.—Empowering Sub-Registrars to register documents under Section 88 (VII) of the Registration Regulation in case of refusal by the executant.

Mr. D. S. Mallappa, Tiptur Taluk.

If the executant of a document fails to get the document registered and if the document is presented for registration by the claimant under the document and the executant fails to appear even after the issue and personal service of summons, then, the Sub-Registrars may be empowered to register such documents.

No. 30.—Collection of deficient stamp duty by Sub-Registrars on documents presented for registration.

Mr. B. Chennabasappa, Tumkur Municipality.

Orders may be passed authorising Sub-Registrars to collect deficient stamp duty if the document presented for registration before him bears a stamp of lesser denomination and to record the necessary endorsement on the document and then register the same.

No. 31.—Search Fees.

(a) Mr. Bale Gowda, Kunigal Taluk.

(b) Messrs. H. N. Raghavendra Rao, and H. R. T Rajagopala Modaliar, Hunsur Taluk.

(c) Mr. Devoji Rao, Seringapatam Municipality.

(a) Fees for general searches were being levied in the Registration Department at the rate of Rs. 1-8-0 irrespective of the number of years for which the search was made. For the past two years search fee is levied at Rs. 2 for the first year and 8 annas for each subsequent year. The search fees for 12 years will be Rs. 7-8-0. This is exhorbitant. The revised rates may be abolished and the former rates restored. If this is not possible, a fee of Rs. 2 may be levied irrespective of the period for which the search is made.

(b). Search fees in the Registration Offices may be reduced to their previous rates as the prevailing rates are prohibitive.

(c) It is prayed that search fees may not be levied in Registration Offices if the petition for the copy makes clear mention of the number, year and date and necessary particulars of the document copy of which is applied for.

No. 32.—Investment of Muzrai Funds.

Mr. A. Narayana Iyengar, Hassan Taluk.

The amounts at the credit of the Muzrai Institutions are at present brought under Muzrai Funds and no interest is allowed on the balances. It is prayed that Savings Bank interest may be allowed on these amounts.

No. 33.—Grant of powers to Dharmadarsis for the management of funds of Muzrai Institutions.

Messrs. B. L. Byanna, Bangalore City Municipality and B. M. Munisamappa, Bangalore Taluk.

Dharmadarsis may be granted powers to draw and account for the funds of Muzrai institutions, as this will facilitate the pujas being conducted in time without delay and inconvenience.

No. 34.—Archaks in Veerasaiva Temples.

Mr. N. M. Sivalingappiah, Kadur Taluk.

It is very undesirable to appoint in temples where worship is conducted by Veerasaiva Archaks, men of castes other than Veerasaivas as Managers of the Institutions, and also to allow Brahmins to approach the Deity for purposes of worship. Necessary arrangements may, therefore, be made with a view to see that things of the kind are not permitted to continue in future.

No. 36.—Repeal of the Mysore Newspaper Regulation.

Messrs. Hosakoppa Krishna Rao, Shama Jois, and Honniah Heggade, Koppa Taluk, and Mr. B. N. Subba Rao, Narasimharajapura Sub-Taluk.

It is prayed that the Mysore Newspaper Regulation of 1908 may be repealed early.

No. 37.—Prevention of the slaughter of cows

Messrs. A. Sreekantappa, Dodballapur Municipality, Veeregowda and Hanume Gowda, Dodballapur Taluk.

It is requested that suitable legislation may be passed to prohibit the slaughter of cows which is increasing year after year.

No. 38.—Re-organization of Civil and Criminal Courts.

(a) Mr. N. Sonnappa, Chikballapur Taluk.
(b) Mr. Chikkachannanjappa Setti, Kolar Municipality.

(a) The Munsiffs' Courts in the State are overworked at present. Civil suits are prolonged for considerable length of time. The Special Magistrates recently appointed have not much work to do. In the interests of the public as well as the Government, it is better to establish Munsiffs' Courts at the rate of one for two taluks and invest the Munsiffs with Magisterial powers. The Special Courts may be abolished. This will not only save expense to the State but will also create facilities for early disposal of suits.

(b) Arrangements may be made by Government to expedite the disposal of suits in Civil Courts.

No. 39.—Fixing a time limit for prompt disposal of civil suits.

Mr. B. Nanjundiah, Hosadurga Taluk.

At present civil suits are not being disposed of promptly and some cases are dragged on for 10 to 12 years from the date of institution and thereby the clients are put to heavy expenses on account of Lawyer's fees, batta to witnesses and travelling expenses which sometimes exceed the decretal amount. It is, therefore, requested that a time limit of two years and one year may be fixed with respect to the disposal of the original and small cause cases respectively, that the witnesses may not be required to attend Civil Courts more than twice and that the enquiry may not be unnecessarily protracted.

No. 40.—Location of additional Courts in places other than division headquarters.

Messrs. A. Narayana Iyengar, Boranna and Mahadevappa, Hassan Taluk.

The additional Courts (Sub-Judges' and Munsiffs' Courts) which are at present located in one and the same place, viz., the headquarters of the division may be changed to convenient centres in the division.

No. 41.—The shifting of the II Class Magistrate's Court at Sagar for 15 days to Shiralkoppa.

Mr. Suranagi Siddabasappa, Shikaripur Taluk.

The establishment of a II Class Magistrate's Court at Sagar has not been meeting the needs of the Sagar sub-division as a whole. On the file of this court there will be a greater number of cases belonging to Sorab and Shikaripur Taluks than to Sagar and Nagar Taluks. The limits of Shikaripur and Sorab being far away from the Sagar town, very great inconvenience is caused to the parties coming therefrom to Sagar. To remove this difficulty exprienced by the public, Magistrate's Court might be arranged to be held for 15 days at Sagar, and for 15 days at Shiralkoppa, which is midway between Shikaripur and Sorab.

No. 43.—Re-establishment of Bench Courts, in places where Special Magistrates' Courts are also located.

Messrs. S. Veerabhadrappa and Sati Halappa, Chitaldrug Taluk.

By the abolition of the Bench Magistrates' Courts in certain places in the State, the concession extended to the public is practically withdrawn. It is therefore prayed that those Bench Courts may be re-established as before.

No. 44.—Establishment of Honorary Village Munsiffs' Courts at all taluk headquarters.

Messrs. B. L. Byanna, Bangalore City Municipality, and B. M. Munisamappa, Bangalore Taluk.

It is requested that Honorary Village Munsiffs' Courts be established at all taluk headquarters with jurisdiction to try suits up to Rs. 50.

No. 45.—Re. Supply of forms, books, and necessary articles for the proper working of Village Munsiffs' Courts.

Messrs. B. Gopalachar, T. Ramanna, H. S. Venkatappa Gowda, Tirthahalli Taluk; A. Ananthia, Shimoga Taluk; and C. Subba Rao, Co-operative Constituency.

The Government have sanctioned Village Munsiffs' Courts in several places in the State. In some places the Chairman is appointed, but Panchayetdars are not appointed. The said courts are not supplied with forms, seals, books, etc., for the proper and efficient working thereof. The Government may therefore be pleased to equip the said courts properly without further delay.

No. 46.—Adoption of suitable measures to prevent insolvents from defrauding creditors.

Mr. K. Rudrappa, Devanhalli Municipality.

It is requested that suitable measures be adopted to prevent persons, who have been declared insolvent from defrauding creditors, by insisting upon the insolvents to wear a distinguishing badge, mark or other symbol by which the fact of their being insolvents might be made clear to the public.

No. 47.—Travelling allowance to witnesses for attendance in criminal courts.

(a) Messrs. M. C. Linge Gowda, and S. C. Malliah, Mandya Taluk.

(b) Messrs. Venkatappa alias Chikkanna and Chikke Gowda, Malavalli Taluk.

(c) Mr. Seetharamaiya, Malvalli Municipality.

(d) Messrs. Nadig Aswath Rao, Kumsi Sub-Taluk; N. Lakshman Rao, N. Bhaskar Rao, and Chendrashekarappa, Sorab Taluk.

(a) Travelling allowance may be given to witnesses in all cognizable cases.

(b) Witnesses appearing on behalf of prosecution in criminal cases may be allowed batta.

(c) Patels and Shanbhogs may be allowed batta for attending criminal courts as witnesses.

(d) Witnesses have to go to the criminal courts from long distances and are put to much expense. It is, therefore, prayed that they may be paid batta as is done in civil courts.

No. 48.—Keeping in sealed covers documents, etc., intended to be produced as exhibits in suits in civil courts.

Messrs. B. Gopalachar H. S. Venkatappa Gowda, and Thudaki Ramanna, Tirthahalli Taluk.

In civil courts arrangements may be made to keep the records received in connection with any suit in sealed covers. Copies of such documents before they are exhibited may also be caused to be granted when applied for.

No. 49.—Division of immovable properties as per decree of the Civil Court.

Mr. G. S. Murigappa, Gubbi Taluk.

Execution of decrees relating to the division of property is being effected through Deputy Commissioners of districts. As this causes delay, it is prayed that this may be discontinued and this work may be done by a Commission appointed by the Court.

No. 50.—Enhancement of pay to the Police staff.

Mr. S. Krishnaswamy Rao, Mysore Taluk.

The pay of the Police staff may be enhanced to the scale obtaining in the adjoining British provinces.

No. 51.—Transfer of Police Constables once in two years.

Messrs. G. Subba Rao, Closepet Sub-Taluk, and A. M. Venkatasamiah, Closepet Municipality.

It is requested that Police Constables be transferred once in two years and that they be not re-posted to their native places.

No. 52.—Quick disposal of police complaints.

Mr. Siddegowda, Chennapatna Taluk.

It is requested that police complaints be disposed of quickly, as the long interval that is now taken for their disposal is likely to bring about a breach of the peace.

No. 53.—Procession connected with Devanga Community.

Mr. C. K Hutchappa, Devanga Sangha, Bangalore.

Processions connected with the people of the Devanga community may be permitted to pass through all Government roads with musics, etc., without being obstructed by any usage now prevailing among Hindus themselves.

No. 54.—Starting of a Borstal Institute at Bangalore.

Mr. R. Gopalasami Iyer, Bangalore City Municipality.

Government may be requested to start a Borstal Institute at Bangalore.

No. 55.—Appointment of Non-official Visitors to Local Fund Dispensaries.

Messrs. S. C. Malliah, and M. C. Linge Gowda, Mandya Taluk and Chikkanna alias Venkatappa, and Chikke Gowda, Malavalli Taluk.

A Board of Non-official Visitors may be appointed for every Local Fund Dispensary.

No. 56.—Provision of more hospitals in rural parts of the Kadur District.

Messrs. Dyavappagowda and Manjegowda, Mudigere Taluk.

Mortality in Malnad taluks is on the increase, due to the fact that proper facilities have not been provided in the rural parts for the treatment of the sick. It is, therefore, requested that more dispensaries may be opened in the Malnad parts, each dispensary to serve the needs of all villages within a radius of 8 miles.

No. 57.—Abolition of Cattle Inoculation Fee.

(a) Messrs. Lokahitaishi H. Nanjundaraj Urs, Ursu Community, M. C. Lakshmipathiah, B.A., Education Fund Association, Mysore, M. Venkatakrishnaiah, B. K. Ramakrishnaiya, M.A., LL.B., and M. Ramaswamy, Mysore City Municipality and Srikantachary, Visvakarama Community.

(b) Messrs. Dyavappa Gowda and Nanje Gowda, Mudigere Taluk

(c) Messrs. A. Ananthiah, Shimoga Taluk, C. Subba Rao, Co-operative Interests, Putta Mallappa, Shikaripur Taluk, Nadig Lakshman Rao, Nadig Bhaskar Rao, Chendrashekarappa, Sorab Taluk.

(a) Cattle may be inoculated free of charge.

(b) The levy of a fee of one ruppee for inoculating every head of cattle under the recent rules works as a great hardship. It may therefore be abolished.

(c) The Government have framed rules for the levy of one rupee per head of cattle for injecting the serum simultaneous for the prevention of rinderpest. The cost is prohibitive to the poor raiyats. Government may be aware that the raiyats have not come forward to avail themselves of the remedy and no useful purpose would be served by the levy. It is therefore prayed that the Government may be pleased to forego the cost for injecting the serum simultaneous.

No. 58. – Establishment of Industrial Schools at taluk headquarters.

Messrs. Lokahitaishi H. Nanjundaraj Urs, Ursu Community, M. C. Lakshmipathiah, Jain Education Fund Association, Mysore, M. Venkatakrishnaiah, B. K. Ramakrishnaiah, M.A., LL.B., and M. Ramaswamy, Mysore City Municipality and S. Srikantachary, Visvakarma Community.

Industrial Schools may be established at each taluk headquarter throughout the State.

No. 59.—Weights and Measures Regulation.

Mr. T. Nanjappa, Mysore Chamber of Commerce

It is prayed that the provisions of the Weights and Measures Regulation be strictly enforced throughout the State so that the use of weights and measures in different places may be uniform.

No. 60.—Power of nominating successors under the Joint Stock Companies Regulation.

Messrs. Narasimhegowda and Manjaiya, Chennarayapatna Taluk.

The depositors and share-holders in Joint Stock Companies have not at present the right of making nominations in respect of either the deposit amount or the share subscription. This privilege which is exercised in Co-operative Societies may be extented to Joint Stock Companies.

No. 61.—Provision of more Primary Schools in the Malnad.

Messrs. Dyavappagowda and Manjegowda, Mudigere Taluk.

In order to spread education among the masses in the Malnad, facilities may be provided by opening more Primary Schools in the rural parts, every school to serve the needs of villages within a radius of 5 or 6 miles.

No. 62.—Establishment of Boarding Schools for Adikarnatakas.

Messrs. B. S. Venkatanagappa Setty, Chamarajanagar Taluk, Sangana Basappa, Chamarajanagar Municipality.

More than half the Excise revenue is contributed by the Adikarnatakas. It is not possible for the old generation to get over this evil and as such their children naturally contract this evil unless they are placed in better surroundings. It is, therefore, prayed that Boarding Schools may be established for these, first at district headquarters and gradually in all taluk headquarter places.

No. 63.—Distribution of Backward Class Scholarships.

Mr. M. C. Lakshmipathiah, Jain Education Fund Association, Mysore.

In view of the inconsistencies and disadvantages of the present system of distributing Backward Class Scholarships on the basis of population, it is desirable that the basis be revised so as to give scholarships in proportion to the strength of each community in a particular institution.

No. 64.—Abolition of Admission, Library, Reading Room and Sports Fees in Middle Schools.

Messrs. Hutcha Hanume Gowda, Nelamangala Taluk, and Sidde Gowda, Chennapatna Taluk.

It is requested that the Library, Reading Room, Admission and Sports Fees now levied in Middle Schools in villages may be abolished as much hardship is felt by many poor boys in paying of these fees.

No. 65.—Private Hostel Buildings.

Mr. A. Nanjundappa Setty, Alur Sub-Taluk.

The concession at present granted for the construction of private hostel buildings may be extended for another five years on the expiry of their present term.

No. 66.—Lower Secondary Examination days.

Messrs. Suryanarainsetty and Nagannasetty, Arkalgud Taluk.

The present rules that the Lower Secondary Examination should begin on the 1st of April every year is causing inconvenience inasmuch as the candidates have to stay unnecessarily long owing to intervening holiday. The old system of commencing the examination on Monday and closing it at the end of the week may be revived.

No. 67.—Prescribing books containing morals as compulsory subjects in all Primary and Middle Schools.

Messrs. K. Chennabasappa, and Bhistappa, Davangere Taluk and O. Chennabasappa, Davangere Municipality.

It is prayed that books containing morals (Neetibodhaka) be prescribed as a compulsory subject in all Primary and Middle Schools.

No 68.—Appointment of a teacher to teach the art of Piping.

Mr. Kempanna, Special Interests, Tumkur.

A teacher to teach the art of Piping (ಬಾಜಾ ಭಜಂತ್ರಿ) may be appointed. The Government were pleased to order that if the raiyats paid contribution of half the amount towards the pay of the teacher the matter would be considered. It is not possible to pay any contribution in these hard days and it is prayed that a teacher may be appointed immediately, Government bearing the full cost of his pay.

No. 69.—Delivery of property in the case of sales held in execution of Co-operative Society decrees.

Messrs. Ramanna, and L. Giddegowda, Hole-Narasipur Taluk and Venkatasamaiya, Hole-Narsipur Municipality.

In the case of sales of immovable properties held for the execution of co-operative decrees by Revenue Officers, actual delivery of property is not given as in the case of Civil Court sales and as this acts as a hardship the rules may be suitably amended.

No. 70.—Execution of Co-operative decrees.

Mr. L. Vemareddi, Malur Taluk.

It is prayed that in the execution of decrees of Co-operative Societies, proper arrangements may be made for the giving of possession of immovable properties sold, just as in the case of sales held by Revenue Officers.

No. 71.—Speedy restoration of Minor Tanks.

Messrs. M. Mayi Gowda, and Sidde Gowda, T.-Narsipur Taluk.

In the case of some of the Minor Tanks though contribution has been levied from the raiyats for their restoration, Government have not yet provided their quota and begun the work. It is, therefore, prayed that large grants for this purpose may be made in the next year's Budget and the works executed early.

No. 72.—Replacement of damaged pipes in Main and Branch Channels.

Mr. Bandiah, Nanjangud Taluk.

Pipes in the Main and Branch Channels are not replaced as they become useless. A statement of such pipes may be obtained from the P.W.D. annually and action taken to replace them early.

No. 73.—Reduction of water rate under Mandagere Channel.

Mr. Linge Gowda, Krishnarajpet Taluk.

It is prayed that the water rate at Rs. 6 instead of Rs. 7½ may be continued to be levied for some time longer under the Mandagere Channel as most of the lands are lying fallow owing to the poverty of the raiyats and as there is also no proper yield.

No. 74.—Grant of more allotment for the repairs of State Fund Roads.

Messrs. B. Gopalachar, T. Ramanna and H. S. Venkatappa Gowda, Tirthahalli Taluk.

It is prayed that the allotment for the State Fund Road from Shimoga to Tirthahalli may be enhanced as the road is very bad.

No. 75.—Opening Shimoga-Arasalu Railway.

Messrs. A. Ananthiah, Shimoga Taluk and C. Subba Rao, Co-operative Constituency.

It is prayed that the Government may be pleased to take on hand early the Shimoga-Arasalu Railway extension.

No. 76.—Survey of Railway line from Chikmagalur to Koppa Taluk boundary.

Messrs. Hosakoppa Krishna Rao, Koppa Taluk, B. Kesavaiya, and S. Honnappaiya, Chikmagalur Taluk, and R. Rangarajiah, Minority Interests, Mudigere.

It is requested that Government may be pleased to pass early orders for the survey of a railway line from Chikmagalur to Mudigere, Balehonnur, and on to Koppa in connection with the undertaking of the final survey of the railway line between Kadur and Chikmagalur.

No. 77.—Authorising Executive Engineers to supply explosives to private parties.

Mr. Murigappa, Shimoga Taluk.

Executive Engineers may be requested to supply explosives to private parties on payment when they possess a license for the purpose from the District Magistrates.

No. 78.—Decrease in the imposition of tax on chrome and manganese.

Mr. Singri Nanjappa, Tiptur Taluk.

A tax of 25 per tent on the average profits from chrome and manganese mines is being paid in the State. This is very excessive when compared with the tax imposed in other States. It is prayed that the tax may be lowered and mines allowed to be worked by Mysoreans.

No. 79.—Amending the Municipal Regulation so as to empower the Municipal Councillors of the Town and and Minor Municipalities to elect their own Presidents.

Mr. Seetharamiah, Hiriyur Taluk.

It is prayed that the Municipal Regulation may be kindly amended empowering the Councillors of the Town and Minor Municipalities to elect their own Presidents.

No. 80.—Making provision in the new Regulations that in the election of Presidents, etc., of Local Boards, ex-officio members may not be allowed to vote.

Messrs. D. S. Mallappa, Tiptur Taluk and Chennabasappa, Tumkur Municipality.

In the election of Presidents and Vice-Presidents for Village Panchayets, District Boards and Municipalities to be constituted hereafter, ex-officio members may not be allowed to vote. Provision may be made accordingly in the new Regulations.

No. 81.—Grants to Town Municipal Councils at district headquarters.

Messrs. H. Boranna and K. Mahadevappa, Hassan Taluk.

The Town Municipal Councils at district headquarters cannot with their slender resources carry out the required improvements within the municipal area. It is prayed that an annual grant of Rs. 10,000 may be made to carry out necessary improvements.

No. 82.—Free drinking water wells in rural areas.

Messrs. A. Narayana Iyengar, Boranna and Mahadevappa, Hassan Taluk and B. M. Deve Gowda, Belur Taluk.

As drinking water is the prime necessity of life and in several villages men and cattle are put to much inconvenience and difficulty for want of good drinking water, wells may be sunk in all villages where there is scarcity of water without even recovering contribution of one-third cost of the wells.

No. 83.—Octroi duty on kamblies.

Mr. T. Nanjappa, Mysore Chamber of Commerce.

It is prayed that the levy of octroi duty on kamblies manufactured in the State and imported from one place to another place within the State limits may be abolished as per Government Order No. 9923-31—L.F. 398, dated 25th February 1899.

No. 84.—Levy of the Railway Cess.

Messrs. M. Channabasappa, Bowringpet Taluk; Chikkachannanjappa Setti, Kolar Municipality.

The levy of Railway Cess on land-holders only is unfair. They are not the only class that avail themselves of Railway facilities. It is prayed that the cess on land-holders may be abolished.

No. 85.—Prohibition of animal slaughter during jatras.

Messrs. K. Channabasappa and Bhistappa. Davangere Taluk, O. Channabasappa, Davanagere Municipality, and Doddia, Panchama Association, Chitaldrug.

It is prayed that the practice of offering animal sacrifices in public before the Mari temples at the time of jatras in the State may be put a stop to.

No 86.—Increasing the number of resolutions, interpellations, and subjects to be sent up to the Assembly for discussion.

Mr. G. P. Rangappa, Honnali Taluk.

It is prayed that provision may be made so as to allow the President to send up one resolution, two interpellations and five subjects more than at present as the present numbers allowed are insufficient and as there is the danger of important subjects being delayed in being brought up before the Assembly.

No. 87.—Deleting of certain clauses in the Representative Assembly Rules.

Mr. J. Rudrappa, Tumkur Taluk.

A person shall be deemed to commit a corrupt practice within the meaning of the rules framed by Government in their Order No. P. 2400—Legis. 12-23-7, dated 7th November 1923 (vide page 88 of the Legislative Council and Representative Assembly Manual, Volume I).

. . . . . .

who himself or through his agent or at his expense feeds or entertains his voters shortly before or after the poll in order to induce them to give votes in his favour."

. . . . . .

This clause may be deleted from the rules.

No. 88.—Appointment of an "Organiser" or "Preacher" for the uplift of the Adikarnatakas.

Mr. Doddaiya, Panchama Association, Chitaldrug.

It is prayed that an educated "Organiser" or "Preacher" for each district may be appointed by Government to enlighten the Adikarnatakas who are not only backward in education but also considered to be untouchables.

No. 89.—Appointment of qualified Visvakarmas to higher appointments in the State.

Mr. S. Srikantachar, Visvakarma Community, Mysore.

It is prayed that persons who have passed University Examinations among the "Visvakarmas" (Goldsmiths) may be given higher appointments in the State, as is being done in the case of people of other backward classes.

No. 90.—Establishment of a Tarnslation Bureau in the State.

Messrs. K. Channabasappa and Bhistappa, Davangere Taluk, and O. Channabasappa, Davangere Municipality.

It is prayed that a Translation Bureau be established in the State in view to have books on Science written in other languages translated into Kannada.

No. 91.—Chamber of Commerce to be represented on the Stores Purchase Committee.

Mr. T Nanjappa, Mysore Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce is not represented on the Stores Purchase Committee which is an important Committee dealing with the purchase of stores valued at several lakhs of rupees required for the several Government Departments. It is, therefore, suggested that the Chamber may be granted the privilege of representation on the Committee.

No. 92.—Division of water from Yagachi to Vedavati river.

Mr. B. Sitharamiah, Hiriyur Taluk.

Water in the Vani Vilas Sagar is exhausted and no water can be supplied from it for irrigation purposes during the year 1926-27. This may not only result in the loss of irrigation revenue to the extent of Rs. 65,000 per annum but also it may take away the means of living for 50,000 people. It is therefore requested that, by diverting the water from the Yagachi to the Vedavati river, the supply to the reservoir may be increased so that permanent supply of water may be ensured for irrigation purposes.
